FIGHTING BACK

Councilmember Cole joins Susan G. Komen to help decrease the high rate of breast cancer in our community

Circle of Promise Day is to encourage African American women across the state to get screened and be more proactive about their breast health and engage at least 10 women in their "circle" to do the same. In addition to encouraging African American women to get screened, Circle of Promise Day is also intended to help increase awareness of the Initiative and breast health self-awareness. Join Councilmember Cole this Saturday, August 1, 2015 at Chollas Lake to support the fight against breast cancer. Click here for more details.

Councilmember Cole meets with representatives from Susan G. Komen to discuss the Circle of Promise event.

Getting Things Done

Councilmember Cole approved CDBG funding for multiple infrastructure projects in District 4

As Vice Chair of the Infrastructure Committee, Councilmember Cole has worked diligently to bring new infrastructure projects to the Fourth District. This week, Councilmember Cole has approved fiscal year 2016 Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG) funding for three new infrastructure projects. Those programs are as follows:

Malcolm X Library - Library Facility Improvements: interior and exterior improvements, exterior lighting upgrades, and additional library security cameras.

Emerald Hills Neighborhood Park & Encanto Community Park - Hard Court Improvements: basketball and tennis court facility improvements.

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program is federally funded by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The program allows the City to fund a variety of housing and community/economic development projects that specifically benefit low- to moderate-income citizens.
